Over the past and during the present, we have been led by many people, but there is one person whose footsteps will be difficult to follow. The impression of her footsteps are filled with integrity, understanding, and a never ending drive to assist her students in attaining success; therefore to show our appreciation for all her efforts, we the class of 1961 dedicate this book to Miss Pat More.

The LAMP

White Shoes

Patiently waiting, you stand
There by the wall, needing polish.
Pitiably shabby to some perhaps,

But to me symbolic.

You are weary with the wisdom of experience,
Not tired by a long day past.
Yes, you have walked in dignity
And, at times, you have sped
Or moved reluctantly along
The myriad corridors you have trod.
You have borne witness to
Desolate sadness and consuming pain,
And there you stand, battered and worn,
But how eagerly you await the early morning hours
To tread once more
Life's corridors.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Judy Disher, will to my little sis, Louise Minor, hints on how to pass tests at Logansport without studying, and a picture of a "Guy" at Logan. Also, my three year old unused hair net in hopes that she will be able to evade using it as I did.

I, Jeannine Baylor, will to my little sis, Karen Evard, the audacity to ask the most questions in class. Perhaps it should be called stupidity.

I, Phyllis Trick, will an angel to Barbara Carey, my little sis, to help her count the months, store her treasures, and remember the true purpose of life.

I, Karen Burniston, having the opportunity to will or bequeath, have decided after much deliberation and careful meditation to will or bequeath to Mary Kay Hall my fuchsia-red bermuda pajamas that no one appreciates—good luck when you try to sleep in them—they may keep you awake.

I, Judy Moore (alias Minerva Morsely, Minnie Moore, or Eloise), will my ability to accumulate such nicknames as these to my little sis, Sunny Benoit.

I, Carol Vondereau, do hereby will and bequeath to Mary Jane Geist my beautiful pale plant. It has survived nurses' training, drought, starvation, darkness, tears, and so on. Need I go on? Its beauty will speak for itself.

I, Bonnie Rayl, will my exquisite musical ability to Judy Comer.

I, Martha Firestone, will to Beverly Cunningham, this infallible antique popcorn popper whose outstanding characteristic is to never have been washed throughout its three years of service here at Parkview. I place this stable, trustworthy, but slightly charred popper into your hands to care for the rest of your days at Parkview.

I, Beverly Diffendarfer, do hereby will to my little sis, Mary Chapman, my luck to flood the hospital by letting the water in the "John" of a patient's room run, and even causing the night supervisor to help mop up a number of buckets of water.

I, Laura Critser, do will to Bunnie Brown my ability to work five days a week and still have everybody think I have every day off.

I, Dee Rothenhofer, do hereby will to my little sis, Bonnie Wilt, the joys of being at the end of the alphabet, the back row seats, the last in the class to see a baby born, the summers on fourth medical, as the only junior in hopes she won't be the last to graduate.

I, Joyce Campbell, will to Jean Davis, my overabundance of exuberant energy, along with my supply of iron pills and vitamins.

I, Kay Flegal, will to my little sis, Carol Fiser, my ability to follow in the footsteps of my big sis by becoming engaged to a Tri-State man.

I, Jane Shinn, do bequeath to Kathleen Schultz, all the many things I have acquired in training, such as a coffee table, incident reports, good times, and so forth.

I, Martha McComas, will to Peg Geiser and Susan Rathburn, my ability to live in the Parkview dorm with an assorted collection of plants, stuffed animals, furniture, things from the hospital, and finally, to go on a one woman scavenger hunt on first floor when the seniors leave dear old Parkview.

I, Diane Garber, will my Christmas tree, which I had all three years of training to Carol Sue Updike hoping that she will make use of it this Christmas of her senior year.

I, Nancy Bertsche, do will the well worn chimpanzee "Misfit," who has so faithfully served three generations already, to my little sis, Marjorie Lengacher, in hopes "Misfit" will help her through training as he did me.

I, Mary Prada, will to Phyllis Shepherd, the remnants of my Christmas tree from last year in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I and some of my "cohorts" did.

I, Kay Gross King, will to Rita Harvey, my good (?) luck to drive ninety miles from Logansport to Fort Wayne, being stopped halfway by a policeman, and get there just in time to miss the smorgasbord. Since the good luck may stick with you as it has me, I have a few things to help you along.

I, Sharon Buess, will my ability to eat constantly for three years, without gaining weight, to Alice Mathews.

I, Donna Fuller, will my place on the sun deck to Diane DeMuth, in hopes that she too, can acquire an April tan.

I, Becky Hare, will to Donna Butler, my history making ability, while in diet kitchen, to see that everybody on third floor received two dinner trays.

I, Karen Leech, being of questionable mind, do hereby will to Marilyn Cunningham, my ability to outlast my floppy red house slippers that tramped the halls of PMSN for two and one-half years before they gave out under the strain.

I, Juanita Laidig, being of questionable mental ability, but tremendous physical ability, will to Yvonne Smith, the talent of carrying two babies at one time from the nursery to post partum.

I, Gloria Copeland, being of reasonable sound mind, do hereby will to Eunice Woods, my gorgeous blond curls. May she have better luck with them than I did.

I, Norma Priddy, being of insane mind after my affiliation at Logansport, do hereby will to my "little sis," Emma Lou Riggs, my trusty camera so that she may also take unique, surprise pictures; especially of the housemothers at Longcliff.

I, Margaret Phillips, being of sound mind, do hereby will to Susan Lotz, the ability to become a senior and still send tubes up the tube system with wrong end first.

I, Lenore Johnson, will to my little sis, Carolyn Meyers, my ability to get through training sound of body and mind. She'll need it in that senior year.

I, Carolyn Hatfield, bequeath to Julia Copsey, my ability to find and nab a medical student while at PV. To my little sis, Jeanne Shindeldecker, I will my notorious talent for helping iron and effectively alter male employee's pants at Logansport.

I, Janet Rice, being of questionably sound mind, will to my little sis, Jane Wetzler, my ability to "catch" a Tech man, go out every night, including nights that I worked relief, be a faithful attender of fraternity parties, and still remain a student at PVSN.

I, Kathy Konopka, being of very sound mind, will to my little sis, Judy Knisley, my love for Logansport. May she have the fun I did. Good luck!

I, Peggy Wilcoxin, will my finger and unused sick leave to Mary Maxwell.

I, Beverly Stevens, will to Doris Lee, my ability to go to work on the wrong service the first day back from Logansport.

I, Carla Shane, will to Becky Turner, a "Care Package" in case of an emergency to use while at Logansport. Hope it will come in handy!

I, Cec Lehman, will to my little sis, Sharon Reinhard, my lovely voice even though it does carry. What it carries I don't know, but it does carry.

I, Nancy Altenburg, being nearly sane, will to Mary Ellen Keith, my trusty dog, Jupiter. May she give her the comfort and companionship in this last year of training that she gave me my first two. (I didn't need her my third year.)

I, Judy Simmons, being gay, carefree, and danceable will to Connie Andrews, my ability to be gay, free, and danceable, and still remain dedicated to the cause.

I, Sandra Lindley, doubting my sanity after my Logansport experience, will to Nancy McIntosh my ability to look blank and say at the appropriate time, "I see you are crying. Would you like to tell me about it?"

I, Kathy Delanoy Martz, bequeath to Linda Sham-erloh, my domestic tendencies to go along with her artistic abilities.

I, Ruth Ann Adams, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Sharon Battershell, my patience to set my French roll in the morning and still make it to breakfast.

I, Carolyn Peek, being of feeble mind, do hereby will to Carolyn Shrock, my ability, while on call in surgery, to drag out a small pack, a 2-pan set, the basic orthopedic tray, the hip tray, the screw box, and scrub in two girls to to a K-wire insertion.

I, Elaine Poe, being completely awake!, do hereby will to Loretta Gruver, my alarm clock and hope it enables her to get to class and to work on time more than it did me.

I, Sue Ross, will to Kay Bosler, my pet Dachshund providing that she takes good care of him and takes him for walks at least t.i.d

I, Judy McCullough, will to Karen Koons, my unique ability to give a hypo without hurting the patient. (Right through my finger.)

I, Carol Platt, being of sound mind, above average intelligence, and of very sturdy character, will to Janet Blinn, my ability to work the hardest, the longest hours, and the most days in a row without a day off and still not complain!

I, Kathy Barkley, having been dutifully instructed by my big sis at her graduation to pass this on to some deserving member of the junior class, will to Karen Runkle, my package of state plug chewing tobacco. This is genuine imported tobacco, from the hayfields of Indiana to Logansport's Men Infirmary, and then to here. May it bring you hours of enjoyment and companionship at Logan. (It's guaranteed to lure the most stubborn little old gentlemen your way.)

I, Judith Deck, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Judy Andreas, my desk calendar. May she use these precious pages to keep track of her social life, with the hope that the outcome will be as happy as mine.

I, Peggy Miller, do hereby will to Patty Lavens, my ability to break my last shoestring in my only pair of shoes on the morning that I am already late for work anyhow.

I, Sandra Stoops, being of sound mind and normal female body, will these characteristics to Linda Crull.

IMAGINATION

Allow your imagination to wander to the year 1971. The Class of 1961 has been away from Parkview for ten years now. Let us compose a letter, with the help of our roving reporter, to our dearest friend, Dr. L. W. Fisher, informing him of our whereabouts.

Dear Dr. Fisher,

Since we have been gone from Parkview for several years I thought you might be interested in what all of your little chickadees in the class of 1961 were doing, so here is a brief idea of their destinies.

Elaine Poe and Beverly Diffendaffer are now in Pennsylvania slaving away trying to keep up with all the injuries incurred on American Bandstand.

Carolyn Hatfield, now the wife of a doctor is president of the Fort Wayne Auxiliary.

Mrs. Kathy Barkley has now established a home clinic to care for the large families in her area.

Kay Flegal is now director of Parkview nurses' choir.

Judith Moore, who recently advanced from her duty as a Broadway troupe nurse, was cast as Eloise in the new stage hit.

Becky Hare is now Health Service Director at Manchester College. We never thought she would medicate all of those students with Bufferin.

Bonnie Rayt has advanced to position of fourth floor supervisor at Parkview.

Laura Critizer, now tipping the scales at 270 pounds, called on Miss Stephanoff to sell her Metracal.

Judy Simmons and Jane Shinn took flight to Siberia as Missionaries.

The former Sandra Stoops finds being the wife of a minister a full time job.

Judy Disher is now president of the babysitters union.

Carol Platt is leading a quiet life living here in Fort Wayne. She is night supervisor of pediatrics at Parkview.

Margaret Phillips is public health nurse in the hills of Kentucky.

Mary Prada is an industrial nurse in a mining town of Pennsylvania.

Beverly Stevens is an outstanding hostess with the American Air Lines.

Sharon Buess won the job as Dr. Snyderman's nurse on the basis of her "bedroom eyes."

Gloria Copeland just came back to Parkview to fill the position of medical instructor which was recently vacated.

Juanita Ladig is now lecturing to all prospective student nurses.

Martha Firestone is head of a fund for a new hospital at Syracuse, Indiana. She will serve as director of nurses when the hospital is completed.

Jeannine Baylor is scrubbing for Dr. McEachern since Miss Lepper is now married.

Diane Garber, heading fire prevention committee at Parkview, has just invented a new "fireproof" wastebasket with a built in extinguisher.

Norma Priddy, after many requests, finally wrote the new procedure for giving a pizza per tube on fourth floor.

Mrs. Nancy Bertsehe is now a mid-wife and veterinarian's assistant. She specializes in delivering calves in Allen County.

Phyllis Trick, nurse on a world cruiser, has started giving hula lessons before entering the Hawaiian port.

Joyce Campbell has accepted a staff position at Johns Hopkins to teach venipuncture class to all nursing and med students.

Mrs. Kathryn Martz, now the wife of a lawyer, is relaxing at home between her cases of private duty.

Karen Burniston is now touring the world with the American Olympic squad working out with the team members in her spare time.

Judy McCullough is Dr. Priddy's office nurse.

Judy Deck has her own nursery—day and night—as she cares for her set of triplets.

Sandra Lindley has been teaching the young braves of the Apache tribe to Indian wrestle during her coffee breaks.

Mrs. Carol Vondereau is still serving as a private duty nurse to her ever faithful husband whom she met at Parkview.

Sue Ross, now the wife of a mortician, lets her husband take over where she leaves off, keeping the business in the family.

Dee Rothenhofer was recently elected president of the American Nursing Association and is serving on the U.S. Welfare Department Staff.

Mrs. Carolyn King is now surgical supervisor at the James Dean Memorial hospital in Fairmount, Indiana.

Mrs. Janet Willis has just written a book on "How to get into a Girl's Dormitory after hours."

Mrs. Donna Fuller travels with her husband in the position of team nurse for the Harlam Globe Trotters.

Carolyn Peek has taken post graduate work in the care and delivery of twins.

Mrs. Nancy Altenburg is working as supervisor of the Moser Memorial.

Cecelia Lehman is now making personal appearances on popular T.V. shows as the leading character of the famous Hilly family.

Martha McComas has just received a Nobel award for being the first woman astronaut.

Peg Wilcoxin is now instructing students on how to break ampoules and how to care for infected wounds.

Kathryn Konopka recently entered a course in mechanics so she can return home safely and without a repair bill or tow-truck charge.

Mrs. Carla Shane after two years as Dr. Knight's scrub nurse, returned to rear her own family.

Lenore Johnson, editor of T.V. guide, writes many articles on the "Art of Staying in Nurses Training."

Karen Leech is slowly becoming over-fatigued from playing cowboys and nurses on the pediatric ward.

Ruth Ann Adams is night supervisor at the new orthopedic hospital at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Peg Miller is now directing her family orchestra which consists of seven members. They have appeared on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour.

Mrs. Donna Bowmar is enjoying her family and working part time.

Sincerely,

The Parkview Roving Reporter

Oh Kathy, they don't have to be perfect.

They must be good ones—look at those grins.

They're smiling—all the toes must be all right

Who cares what it sounds like if it is easy to dance to.

(Right:) Everybody "gets" to run the record player—who's next?

(Below:) They couldn't have run out, where are they?

Sigh!

She must be some queen—get a load of those subjects.

No smiling allowed—this is a crucial play.

Hello “smiley.”

Student nurses occasionally do have fun!

Guess who flunked anatomy.

We go to any lengths to entertain or get a laugh.

It must stink the way she is holding her nose.

The armed forces never stop trying.

We know you have to learn but let the poor girl breathe.

Aw come on fellow, can't you squeeze out more than a penny?

Whatever it is, it's good and messy.

There is no better prep for homemaking than good old PMSN.

Oh _____ ! Doesn't she look nasty?

What is she using? The hunt and punch method?!!

First row: Barbara Carey, Marieta Harvey, Sherry Merillat, Patti Lavens, Jann Brown, Kay Bosler, Diane DeMuth, Carolyn Shrock.

FRESHMEN BECOMING JUNIORS

NEW FACES!
The Juniors and new Freshmen become acquainted at the annual ice cream social.

RECOGNIZE ANYONE?
Here are the Juniors all dressed up for the annual hat and coat check at the doctor's smorgasbord. They look quite dignified, wouldn't you say?

THE LAST DANCE OF THE SUMMER (right)
Pausing for a moment to have their picture snapped are Jeanne Shindel-decker, Bob Brown, Judy Knisely, Janet Blinn and Linda Crull and friends.

SURPRISE!!
Bev Cunningham has just won another of those fabulous prizes at the Bingo Party. Loretta Gruver and Carol Updike look on with pleasure.

TOWARD A JUNIOR-SENIOR??
One of our many money-making projects and it looks quite profitable!!

GOOFED AGAIN!

Seems as if Susie has forgotten her toothbrush again. Carolyn Stealy seems to think it's a big joke.

FOR THE POOR STUDENT NURSES (right) Becky Turner looks as if she is giving a good sales pitch as she is working at the booth set up in the hospital lobby.

FRESHMEN BEING SHORT SHEETED

Becky Turner and Sandy Stoops play a joke on the unsuspecting Freshmen.

EASTER EGGS GALORE

Jann Brown and Emma Lou Riggs are industrious souls, aren't they?

AHEM!

Keeping good body alignment in mind at all times, girls? This will impress the instructors!

THE LONG AWAITED HALF WAY PARTY

Looks as if cannibalism is back.

BEATNIKS SUPREME

Kathy Schultz, Karen Evard and Sunny Benoit are at it again—there's no quiet when the bongos come to life.

FRESHMEN

All that talent wasted in Nurses Training????
L. to R. B. Proxmire, G. Hensley, and J. Amaden.

Tell us, N. Gallmeier, who is the Lucky guy????

Our own little Raggedy Ann,
P. Law.

"INVASION!!"

We built our own "Horn of Plenty." Freshmen Dance 1960.

We worked, we slaved, we struggled and here we are at last!

"Who is it" say these four curious on-lookers.

Dr. Winifred Sink presents the "Award of Merit" to Nancy Cline.

Who says chemistry class is a bore!!

As Freshmen students we gain experience and learning through practice.

A Nurse's Prayer

The world grows brighter year by year,
Because some nurse in her little sphere—
Puts on her apron, and smiles, and sings,
And keeps on doing the same old things.
Taking the temperatures, giving pills
To remedy mankind's numerous ills,
Feeding babies, answering bells,
Being polite with a heart that rebels.
Long for home, and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile,
Blessing the new-born baby's first breath,
Closing the eyes that are stilled in death.
Taking the blame for all mistakes,
Oh, Dear! What a lot of patience it takes,
Going off duty at seven o'clock,
Tired, discouraged and ready to drop,
But called out to help at 7:15,
With woe in the heart that must not be seen.
Morning and evening, noon and night,
Just doing it over, hoping it's right.
When we report off to cross the bar,
Dear Lord, Will you give us—Just one little star
To wear on the cap of our uniform new
In the ward above,
Where the head nurse
